

Debs Come From Behind To Outslug Tabs, 10-6

Playing the kind of ball they knew they were capable of all summer, the Debs came from behind Tuesday night at Walteria Park to defeat the Tabs 10 to 6.

Trailing 6 to 1, the Debs scored seven times in the third inning on two singles, a double, and five walks.

Leading the hitters for the Debs were Jan Salby, third base, who had two singles and a double, and Lana Eystone, second base, who had a single and a double.

The Debs also pulled off two beautiful double plays.

The winning pitcher was Diane Ijames, and the loser was Karen Hellyer.

Practically eliminating the Esabs from first place contention were the Chargers Tuesday night at Walteria Park. They handed the Esabs their second loss, 10 to 5. The Chargers took a 4 to 0 lead in the second inning, and after that it wasn't even close.

Six more runs scored in the fourth inning, when Louise Mathews, the Chargers' left fielder, slammed out a bases-loaded home run.

EACH TEAM had a nifty double play.

The win goes to Gaynell McGee, and Kathy Fisher was charged with the loss.

However, the Esabs bounced back Thursday night at McMaster Park to defeat the Tabs 7 to 2. The Esabs had to come from behind to win this one.

Losing 0 to 2 in the second, the Esabs scored three big runs and were never headed again.

They got one more in the third and three more in the fifth. The "big blast" was a round-tripper by the manager and short stop, Kathy Fisher. Kathy also turned in some fine fielding, along with the first baseman, Cynthia Pederson.

CYNTHIA also had three for three at the plate.

In the other game, the Rockies won their first game of the season defeating the Spartettes 7 to 0.

Nationwide Grid Contest Planned by Ford Motors

A nationwide football competition that will give boys a chance to display their prowess in punting, passing and place-kicking, was announced today by the Ford Division of Ford Motor Co.

The program, appropriately dubbed "P. P. & K.," will be conducted during the 1961 football season under the sponsorship of the Ford division and its dealers in cooperation with the National Football League.

Punt, Pass and Kick, open to all grade-school boys from ages six through 10, will be judged by coaches, professional football players and recreation officials.

Judging each event will be fairly simple. Scoring will be based on distance and accuracy, with one point for each foot the ball travels in the air, minus one point for each foot the ball lands to the right or left of a center line.

Registrations will take place at participating Ford dealerships.

HUNDREDS OF thousands of dollars in sports equipment and other prizes will be awarded to the contestants.

The program will start with local contests conducted by Ford dealers. There will be 15 local prize winners, first, second and third place in each of the five age groups. First place winners will have a chance to be named regional winners who will be selected on the basis of the highest scores attained in local contests. There will be 14 regions, one for each NFL team area.

Winner of regional championships in each age group will compete for national honors in a spectacular pro game half-time programs in view of thousands of fans at the stadiums and millions more watching TV.

THE NATIONAL champions in each age group will take part in half-time ceremonies of the NFL championship game and will receive a trip to Washington where they will be accorded an official White House reception.

Starting with the regional competitions, fathers will accompany their sons, all expenses paid.

Although exact dates have not yet been announced, registration for the program will start later this month, with actual competitions beginning in October.

"Kiwanis Crippled Children Foundation Day" has been proclaimed for Monday, Aug. 14, and thousands of southlanders will join in the activities by attending Kiwanis' 22nd annual benefit baseball game in the evening at the coliseum.

The high-flying Los Angeles Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals meet in the regular National League contest. This marks the fourth year in which the Dodgers have been featured in the game.

Members of some 200 southern Kiwanis clubs still have some choice box and reserved seat tickets available. Fans are urged to obtain tickets now through Kiwanis as only funds from Kiwanis-sold tickets go toward the care and treatment of needy youngsters.

No less than seven players from the 1961 National League All-Star team will appear in the game. The group is headed by Card Bill White, this year's hitting star, and teammates Stan Musial and Ken Boyer.

The Dodger all-stars include Maury Wills, Johnny Roseboro, Don Drysdale and Sandy Koufax. All but Drysdale saw action in the games.

In the proclamation, Mayor Yorty urged a full support of the activity and noted that Kiwanis maintains permanent beds in the Orthopaedic hospital, works with 13 other hospitals and offers care and treatment regardless of race, color and creeds.

Several of the children currently being aided by Kiwanis will be introduced in colorful pre-game ceremonies.

Senators Outslug Cubs, Gain Tordondo Decision

Resuming Major League play after a break in the schedule that allowed the Tordondo All Stars to battle to the final round of the District 26 All Star tournament, the Senators outslugged the Cubs 9 to 5 with Frank Stewart notching the win.

Dave Mosely homered for the Senators while Bill Bergeron, the losing hurler, helped his own cause with a four-bagger.

Charley Lee pitched the Dodgers to a 4 to 3 upset of the Tigers in the other Major League contest. Losing chuckers were Jack Cowan and Greg Butterfield.

In a wild, free-swinging contest, the Padres downed the Athletics 31 to 3. Danny Carter, winning pitcher, hurled no-hit ball for the first four innings before getting shaky and walking in three runs.

Behind 4 to 1 at the end of three frames, the Cards took advantage of the removal of Card chucker Bill Barto to rally and gain a 14 to 11 victory.

Age Group Track Championships Planned for Mount San Antonio

Young girls, ages 10 to 13 years, from five southwest states, will compete Saturday, Aug. 19, at 6 p.m., at Mount San Antonio College stadium in Walnut for honors in the Second Annual National Age Group Track and Field Championships.

The meet will be jointly controlled and conducted by the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation, Mount San Antonio College, and the Southern Pacific Assn. AAU.

Accompanied by parents, coaches, or guardians, the junior girl athletes will gather from throughout California, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada and Utah.

Three national AAU records were broken in the 1960 meet at Mount Sac in the running broad jump, baseball throw, and running high jump. New records are expected at the coming Aug. 19 meet.

In the 10 and 11 year age group, the events will be: 25 yard dash, 50 yard dash; 200 yard relay shuttle; running broad jump; baseball throw; 200 yard pursuit jump; and running high jump.

In the 13 and 15 year age group, the events will be: 50 yard dash; 75 yard dash; 300 yard relay shuttle; 300 yard relay pursuit; running high jump; running broad jump; and baseball throw.

The public is invited to witness this event which will attract more than 200 girls from athletic associations and recreation agencies, as well as unattached individuals. They will compete under official AAU rules, with AAU awards to be presented to the winners.

Entries should reach Sue Acosta, 3236 W. 113th St., Inglewood, not later than Monday, Aug. 14.

Fields Choice Over Garcia On Wed.

Jimmy Fields, former all-Navy lightweight champion, has been installed an early 10-8 choice over Mexico's Andres Garcia in the 10-round main event at Long Beach Municipal Auditorium Wednesday night.

Fields, fresh from a 10-round win over Al Grant at the Olympic Auditorium is one of the most promising fighters now campaigning in Southern California.

Garcia, a tough young puncher, lacks the boxing ability of Fields, but packs a heavier wallop and is the more aggressive of the two.

Willie Lucero, veteran Lomita featherweight, who has fought several main events in Los Angeles will make his first ring start in more than a year when he squares off against Wicho Morales in the six round semi-windup.

Morales is an action battler, who could well upset Lucero's comeback plans.

Three four round bouts complete the card.

City Plunge Will Close For Aquacade

Torrance City Plunge will be closed for public recreational swimming from Wednesday, Aug. 9, through Saturday, Aug. 12, according to the Torrance Recreation Dept.

The pool will be closed in preparation for the sixth annual aquacade, this year with the theme, "Tales of Paul Bunyan." A cast of 100 swimmers, comic divers, dancers, and other talent will perform in the show.

The following week, regular pool hours, 1 to 4:30 p.m. and 7 to 9:30 p.m. daily, will be resumed. The pool is open Saturdays from 10 to 12 and from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday hours are 1 to 5 p.m.

Ascot Schedules Top Cycle Men In Steeplechase

Another of the popular steeplechase races has been set for Ascot Park tonight by J. C. Agajanian.

Agajanian expects a record entry list of more than 120 riders for tonight's races over the hair-raising 10-ft. jump and around the hazardous nine-turn infield course. The last two night steeplechases have thrilled packed stands.

Dick Hammer of Lakewood, holder of the course record of 12:33.62 for the 15-lap main event, is the favorite over a standout field of expert class riders including Dick Dorres, San Pablo; Jack O'Brien, Santa Monica; Jack Simmons, San Pedro, and Dave Bostrom, Richmond.

Skip Van Leeuwen of Bellflower is rated the class of the amateur field with Jimmy Main of El Sobrante high in contention. There will also be a full program for novice or first year riders.

INDY CHAMPION . . . America's top automobile driver—A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., 1961 Indianapolis winner and national champion, will compete in the USAC championship midget car races Saturday night at Ascot Park.
